

Having a satellite radio in my vehicle ensures that I have constant, complete, current and interference free traffic information. I don't have to search for AM stations that may or may not be available (causing driver distractions). If free radio (AM / FM) could provide the requirements & expectations that I need and deserve, I would consider it.

Respectrully,
Christian Russ